

UHASSEL

KNOWLEDGE IN ACTION

Flemish Interuniversity Research Network on Law and Development

Annual Research Day
'A Human-Rights Based Approach to Development Cooperation'

Thursday, 21 December 2017

Hosted at Hasselt University, Martelarenlaan 42, 3500 Hasselt

Programme

- 10.00: Registration and coffee
- 10.30: Welcome
- 10.50: Keynote Opportunities and Pitfalls of a Human Rights-Based Approach to Development Cooperation
Dr. Arne Tostensen, Chr. Michelsen Institute, Bergen, Norway
- 11.30: Discussion, moderated by Dr. Arne Tostensen, of a fictitious Belgian Development Cooperation Programme. Several representatives 'North' from Flemish universities present their experiences, questions and doubts regarding a human rights-based approach to development cooperation
- 13.00: Lunch
- 14.15: Discussion, moderated by Dr. Arne Tostensen, of a fictitious Belgian Development Cooperation Programme. Several representatives 'South' from Flemish universities present their experiences, questions and doubts regarding a human rights-based approach to development cooperation.
- 15.45: Final remarks and closure of the conference

The debate is free, but please register here.

Participation is free of charge thanks to the financial support of the Global Minds programme of VLIR-UOS 2017.

Contact person: Ingrid Vrancken (Faculty of Law).